

CONTINGENT FEE AGREEMENT

2. The Client will pay The Firm a thirty five percent (35%) contingency fee of the gross award or settlement of the Claim. The fee increases to thirty eight percent (38%) if a lawsuit is filed on your behalf, forty percent (40%) after 120 days in litigation, and forty five percent (45%) if your case goes to trial. Any specially awarded attorney fees shall belong to The Firm. If attorney's fees are awarded to Client, Client shall pay the greater amount of either (1) the amount awarded for attorney's fees or (2) 35%, 38%, 40% or 45% (depending on the status of the case when resolved) of the gross recovery and the percentage shall be applied to all amounts collected for all damages, interest, costs and other recovery and also including the amounts awarded for attorney's fees. Attorney fees are charged on the gross amount before expenses are deducted meaning they are charged after the contingency fee is calculated.
 - I understand and consent to Ramos Law associating in this matter with Morgan & Morgan, P.A, and that of the applicable fees in this agreement, 75% shall be paid to Ramos Law and 25% to the associating law firm, Morgan & Morgan, P.A.

I understand that in no event, however, shall I incur any additional legal fees or charges by virtue of said employment of co-counsel.

Co-counsel Morgan & Morgan, P.A. shall assume the same legal responsibilities to me for the performance of legal services as Ramos Law and will remain available to the client to discuss the case and provide independent judgment as to any concerns. I understand that Morgan & Morgan, P.A. will have regular contact with Ramos Law to monitor the status of this matter.

3. The Client is to be liable to the attorney for reasonable expenses. Such expenses can be significant if your case is resolved without a lawsuit. Our average expenses are between $200 and $500, prior to filing a lawsuit. If we file a lawsuit, expenses can range between $5,000 and $50,000+. Case costs can vary considerably. At our discretion, we may ask you to pay litigation expenses up front at any time.

4. Client authorizes The Firm to pay all outstanding bills and liens associated with the Claim from the gross recovery after payment of the contingency fee. Client acknowledges subrogation and liens have been explained.
5. Medical care is NOT a cost or expense. If there is no monetary recovery, The Firm will not pay any of Client's medical bills.
6. The Firm holds an attorney's lien on all money recovered or received by the Client and the Client may not compromise, settle, or otherwise burden the Claim without The Firm's consent.
7. The Firm may withdraw from the Claim for any reason at any time and would have no further responsibility to Client. Likewise, the Client may terminate The Firm at any time.
8. This Agreement does not include appellate services.
9. Client agrees to keep The Firm advised of their whereabouts at all times and to follow all requests for the preparation and presentation of the Claim.
10. Client authorizes The Firm to provide all necessary information to any entity or person involved with the Claim. Client acknowledges signing a medical records release.
11. In the event the client terminates this contingent fee agreement without wrongful conduct by the attorney which would cause the attorney to forfeit any fee, or if the attorney justifiably withdraws from the representation of the client, the attorney may ask the court or other tribunal to order the client to pay the attorney a fee based upon the reasonable value of the services provided by the attorney. If the attorney and the client cannot agree how the attorney is to be compensated in this circumstance, the attorney will request the court or other tribunal to determine: (1) if the client has been unfairly or unjustly enriched if the client does not pay a fee to the attorney; and (2) the amount of the fee owed, taking into account the nature and complexity of the client's case, the time and skill devoted to the client's case by the attorney, and the benefit obtained by the client as a result of the attorney's efforts. Any such fee shall be payable only out of the gross recovery obtained by or on behalf of client and the amount of such fee shall not be greater than the fee that would have been earned by the attorney if the contingency described in this contingent fee agreement had occurred. In the event the Firm must file a lawsuit to recover unpaid legal fees, Client expressly agrees to pay the Firm's attorney's fees and costs incurred for same.
12. The Firm may associate other attorneys outside The Firm to work on the claim. This will not change the fee charged to the Client.
